

VOTE THIS TICKET IN NEW-YORK CITY ONLY.

Some of our Republican friends do not seem to be acquainted with the fact that there is a difference—but in the caption and endorsement only—in the ticket for Presidential Electors to be voted for in this city and in the State outside of the city. Below is a correct list of the Republican Electors, with the caption and endorsement corresponding, which will be voted in this city to-day. Cut it out and compare your ticket with it before you vote to-day.

PRESIDENT.

For Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, JAMES S. T. STRAHANAHAN, READ BENEDICT, JAMES A. JAHN, EDWARD A. DURANT, JR., GUSTAVUS A. JAHN, EDWARD A. DURANT, JR., JAMES W. BIRKETT, FR. N. R. WITMER, FREDERICK PROCTOR, JOHN W. BIRKETT, JOHN S. KOSTER, LIPSEY STEWART, EDWARD A. BROWN, WILLIAM H. CALPIN, CLINTON D. MAGGAGALLI, BRADTON IVES, ROBERT A. GREEN, ALFRED E. LEWIS, ROBERT F. PORTER, HENRY HERING, JOHN THOMAS STEARNS, PHILIP RECKER, JOHN F. WINSLOW, THOMAS CORNELL, BENJAMIN FLAGLER, ASHER W. MINEER.

VOTE THIS TICKET EVERYWHERE IN THIS STATE, EXCEPT IN NEW-YORK CITY.

Below is a correct list of the Republican Electors to be balloted for by voters in this State outside of the city to-day. All tickets with these names, together with the caption and endorsement corresponding, will be legal in every part of the State outside of this city. Cut this out and compare your ticket with it before you vote to-day.

ELECTORS.

For Electors of President and Vice-President.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, JAMES S. T. STRAHANAHAN, JAMES A. JAHN, EDWARD A. DURANT, JR., GUSTAVUS A. JAHN, EDWARD A. DURANT, JR., JAMES W. BIRKETT, FR. N. R. WITMER, FREDERICK PROCTOR, JOHN W. BIRKETT, JOHN S. KOSTER, LIPSEY STEWART, EDWARD A. BROWN, WILLIAM H. CALPIN, CLINTON D. MAGGAGALLI, BRADTON IVES, ROBERT A. GREEN, ALFRED E. LEWIS, ROBERT F. PORTER, HENRY HERING, JOHN THOMAS STEARNS, PHILIP RECKER, JOHN F. WINSLOW, THOMAS CORNELL, BENJAMIN FLAGLER, ASHER W. MINEER.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

That voters may be sure of not being imposed upon by unscrupulous Democratic political workers, who will employ every means in their power to defeat the election of Republicans to office. The Tribune publishes to-day the correct ballot for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, with its legal caption and endorsement. Compare your ballot with that printed below before you vote it to-day, that you may be certain of having your vote counted.

STATE.

For Governor, WARNER MILLER.

For Lieutenant-Governor, STEPHEN V. R. CRUGEN.

W. G. STAHLNECKER'S SHADY RECORD.

JAMES WOOD, HIS OPPONENT, SHOULD COMMAND THE SUPPORT OF ALL GOOD MEN.

James Wood is the Republican candidate for Congress from the XIVth District, and William G. Stahlnecker is the Democratic candidate. It ought not to be a question with men who want honest government as to their preference between these two. Mr. Wood is a dignified, upright, conscientious gentleman, the president of the Farmers' Club of Westchester, and no man who commands the respect of every one who knows him. Mr. Stahlnecker is the sort of candidate that Democratic politicians want. He was recently brought into undesirable prominence by the charges against him in connection with the contracts for furnishing materials for the construction of the Library Building at Washington. Mr. Stahlnecker was also brought into notoriety in 1878, when a company with which he was connected was charged with fraud, and his father was suspended from the Produce Exchange by the unanimous vote of the thirteen managers.

In February, 1877, upon the representation to A. C. Jeffrey's agent that Oliver Stahlnecker & Son (W. G. Stahlnecker) were forming a company to export fresh beef to England, and that Oliver Stahlnecker's interest was $75,000 and William G.'s interest was $50,000, and that Anderson Fowler and several others had taken large blocks of stock, Mr. Jeffrey was induced to take $20,000 in stock and paid for it in full. A few shipments were made only, and Mr. Jeffrey, believing that fraud had been perpetrated, came to New-York, and not until he had overcome many obstructions put in his way could he obtain the books. The first item of investment was his own of $20,000, and only one other, that of $1,500 by a man on Staten Island. Then Mr. Jeffrey brought the matter to the attention of the managers of the Produce Exchange, and in his complaint alleged the above facts; also that William G. Stahlnecker and a Mr. Ollin went to England to sell the stock.

Later William G. escaped the treasurer of the company, and to escape paying judgment, Oliver's $50 shares and William G.'s 25 shares were transferred to an employee. Mr. Jeffrey's first letter to the Complaint Committee was dated October 19, 1878, but it was some time afterward that the case was tried. A significant fact, however, is that William G. Stahlnecker transferred his seat to F. C. Husted on November 7; the latter transferred it to F. C. Husted on August 1, 1879, after on June 1, 1880, it was transferred to F. C. Husted by G. Stahlnecker. The above facts are of official record.

REASONS WHY BRADFORD RHODES SHOULD WIN.

The unscrupulous Democrats of Westchester County have been carrying on a still hunt to defeat the re-election of Bradford Rhodes to the Assembly. They are in most part the supporters of the Haggerly dredging project, one of the most nefarious schemes ever introduced in the Legislature, and they have been bargaining with the Italian laborers for votes to determine opposition to Mr. Rhodes in the last Legislature. It was largely due to the determined opposition to Mr. Rhodes in the last Legislature that the Haggerly job—which would have severely injured the navigation of Long Island Sound and the health of the people in its vicinity—was defeated, and the supporters of that measure, since there is no Tweed Boulevard staved off upon, are determined to defeat Mr. Rhodes's re-election. It is therefore to be evident without argument that it is the duty of every honest citizen and tax-payer to be Republican or Democrat, to vote for men who are truly stand by their honest convictions, as did Mr. Rhodes.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS.

Continued from Third Page.

SARATOGA.
1. Harvey J. Donaldson, Thomas O'Connor, German Brownell (P.) James A. Dayton.
2. George S. Batcheller John C. Myers.
John W. Shorter (P.) Edward Young.
W. A. Losse Schuyler A. V. McKell.
Fremont Cole, Seneca Wm. H. Durham.
John W. Day Coast Cover (P.) STEUBEN.
1. Charles H. McMaster, Thomas Cotton, Andrew B. Craig.
2. Alvin M. Acker Eugene Johnson (P.)
John H. Johnson (P.) SUFFOLK.
John E. Hunting, Joshua J. Craven.
Martin A. Smith Philip Woolsey (P.)
William L. Decker Elwell (P.)
TOMPKINS. Joel C. Fisk.
William R. Swartout.
William H. Hale Aaron Heden.
William W. Hale (P.) ULSTER.
M. J. Donlan.
Charles L. Contant Jacob Rice.
E. G. Adams (P.) G. A. Bush.
George Denby Albert G. Grimes (P.)
WARREN. H. McKea Wing.
Scott Barton James H. Lawrence (P.)
WASHINGTON. Washington.
Charles W. Lannon John Aperry (P.)
2. Wm. H. Taft Roland P. Hubbard.
WESTCHESTER. William Murray.
John Paul (P.) Samuel Conover.
Benedict J. Carpenter (P.) William Mabie.
James W. Husted (P.) HICKMAN COVERT (P.)
Wyoming Van Gorder, Grove Barnum.
A. Greenleaf S. Barlow (P.)
TATES. Harry M. Huntington.
W. A. Carson, John Kline (P.)
a Renominated. (P) Prohibition.

NORTH CAROLINA.

REPUBLICAN. DEMOCRATIC.
For Governor Oliver H. Duckery Daniel G. Fowle.
Lieut.-Governor J. C. Prichard Thomas M. Holt.
Secretary George S. Stanton W. M. Sanders.
Treasurer A. B. Bishop W. M. Bain.
Attorney-General C. M. McKesson Geo. W. Sandelin.
Auditor C. P. Devereux A. T. Davidson.
Supreme Court J. W. Jones J. W. Jones.
Supreme Courts J. W. Jones J. W. Jones.
a Renominated.

OHIO.

REPUBLICAN. DEMOCRATIC.
For Governor J. D. Bryan J. D. Bryan.
Lieut.-Governor W. H. D. Brown W. H. D. Brown.
Secretary W. W. Wood W. W. Wood.
Treasurer J. W. Moore J. W. Moore.
Attorney-General W. H. McCammy.
Auditor C. P. Devereux C. P. Devereux.
Supreme Court J. W. Jones J. W. Jones.
Supreme Courts J. W. Jones J. W. Jones.

a Renominated.

WISCONSIN.

REPUBLICAN. DEMOCRATIC.
For Governor William D. Howard James Morgan.
Lieut.-Governor W. H. Ryland A. C. Lathrop.
Secretary A. B. Harshaw Theodore Korsten.
Treasurer A. C. Estabrook W. H. Ryland.
Attorney-General C. C. Venable A. C. Venable.
Auditor C. A. Johnson C. A. Johnson.
Supreme Court J. W. Jones J. W. Jones.
Supreme Courts J. W. Jones J. W. Jones.

a Renominated.

INDIANA.

REPUBLICAN. DEMOCRATIC.
For Governor Oliver H. Duckery Daniel G. Fowle.
Lieut.-Governor J. C. Prichard Thomas M. Holt.
Secretary George S. Stanton W. M. Sanders.
Treasurer A. B. Bishop W. M. Bain.
Attorney-General C. M. McKesson Geo. W. Sandelin.
Auditor C. P. Devereux A. T. Davidson.
Supreme Court J. W. Jones J. W. Jones.
Supreme Courts J. W. Jones J. W. Jones.

a Renominated.

MISSOURI.

REPUBLICAN. DEMOCRATIC.
For Governor Oliver H. Duckery Daniel G. Fowle.
Lieut.-Governor J. C. Prichard Thomas M. Holt.
Secretary George S. Stanton W. M. Sanders.
Treasurer A. B. Bishop W. M. Bain.
Attorney-General C. M. McKesson Geo. W. Sandelin.
Auditor C. P. Devereux A. T. Davidson.
Supreme Court J. W. Jones J. W. Jones.
Supreme Courts J. W. Jones J. W. Jones.

a Renominated.

TEXAS.

REPUBLICAN. DEMOCRATIC.
For Governor Oliver H. Duckery Daniel G. Fowle.
Lieut.-Governor J. C. Prichard Thomas M. Holt.
Secretary George S. Stanton W. M. Sanders.
Treasurer A. B. Bishop W. M. Bain.
Attorney-General C. M. McKesson Geo. W. Sandelin.
Auditor C. P. Devereux A. T. Davidson.
Supreme Court J. W. Jones J. W. Jones.
Supreme Courts J. W. Jones J. W. Jones.

a Renominated.

IRISH-AMERICANS IN LINE.

READY TO CAST THEIR BALLOTS FOR HARRISON, MORTON AND PROTECTION.

The boys of the Irish Brigade, as they may fairly be called, are now ready. The Irish-American Anti-Free Trade League and the Irish-American Anti-Cleavland and Protective League marshalled their forces yesterday. Captain P. H. McNamara, president of the Anti-Free Trade League, who has obtained little sleep during the past week, and little rest during the last two weeks, having entered the canvass among the Irish-Americans in behalf of Harrison and Morton with all the enthusiasm of a volunteer, did not go to bed at all last night. He was at the headquarters of his organization, No. 141 Eighth-st., until 1 o'clock this morning, assigning men to the various election districts. He distributed badges, too. These will show the Irish workers as distinguished from the members of the regular Republican organizations at the different polling places. —Harrison-Morton—1888—Irish-American Anti-Free Trade League.

Is the inscription upon their badges.

Captain McNamara is determined that, as far as his organization is concerned, no stone will be left unturned to bring out as large a vote as possible. He desires to "see it out to the last," to quote his own words, and to this end will make an effort to day in company with J. F. McCarthy, the secretary of the League, and some other of his co-laborers to visit as many of the polling places as possible and see that the men who are assigned to do the work are doing their duty. For twelve weeks Captain McNamara has now labored to help along the triumph of the protective principle; he paid no attention to his own business during that time, and went so far as to refuse to touch even one cent of the money placed in his hands for the expenses in connection with the organization. Besides this he has a set of books, and with J. F. McCarthy, a competent accountant, has kept a record of all monetary transactions, which he will submit to the County Committee when the election is over. "It will all soon be finished," he said last evening, "and finished with a victory for Harrison."

With all the enthusiasm of a volunteer, did not go to bed at all last night. He was at the headquarters of his organization, No. 141 Eighth-st., until 1 o'clock this morning, assigning men to the various election districts. He distributed badges, too. These will show the Irish workers as distinguished from the members of the regular Republican organizations at the different polling places. —Harrison-Morton—1888—Irish-American Anti-Free Trade League.

Is the inscription upon their badges.

Captain McNamara is determined that, as far as his organization is concerned, no stone will be left unturned to bring out as large a vote as possible. He desires to "see it out to the last," to quote his own words, and to this end will make an effort to day in company with J. F. McCarthy, the secretary of the League, and some other of his co-laborers to visit as many of the polling places as possible and see that the men who are assigned to do the work are doing their duty. For twelve weeks Captain McNamara has now labored to help along the triumph of the protective principle; he paid no attention to his own business during that time, and went so far as to refuse to touch even one cent of the money placed in his hands for the expenses in connection with the organization. Besides this he has a set of books, and with J. F. McCarthy, a competent accountant, has kept a record of all monetary transactions, which he will submit to the County Committee when the election is over. "It will all soon be finished," he said last evening, "and finished with a victory for Harrison."

With all the enthusiasm of a volunteer, did not go to bed at all last night. He was at the headquarters of his organization, No. 141 Eighth-st., until 1 o'clock this morning, assigning men to the various election districts. He distributed badges, too. These will show the Irish workers as distinguished from the members of the regular Republican organizations at the different polling places. —Harrison-Morton—1888—Irish-American Anti-Free Trade League.

Is the inscription upon their badges.

Captain McNamara is determined that, as far as his organization is concerned, no stone will be left unturned to bring out as large a vote as possible. He desires to "see it out to the last," to quote his own words, and to this end will make an effort to day in company with J. F. McCarthy, the secretary of the League, and some other of his co-laborers to visit as many of the polling places as possible and see that the men who are assigned to do the work are doing their duty. For twelve weeks Captain McNamara has now labored to help along the triumph of the protective principle; he paid no attention to his own business during that time, and went so far as to refuse to touch even one cent of the money placed in his hands for the expenses in connection with the organization. Besides this he has a set of books, and with J. F. McCarthy, a competent accountant, has kept a record of all monetary transactions, which he will submit to the County Committee when the election is over. "It will all soon be finished," he said last evening, "and finished with a victory for Harrison."

With all the enthusiasm of a volunteer, did not go to bed at all last night. He was at the headquarters of his organization, No. 141 Eighth-st., until 1 o'clock this morning, assigning men to the various election districts. He distributed badges, too. These will show the Irish workers as distinguished from the members of the regular Republican organizations at the different polling places. —Harrison-Morton—1888—Irish-American Anti-Free Trade League.

Is the inscription upon their badges.

Captain McNamara is determined that, as far as his organization is concerned, no stone will be left unturned to bring out as large a vote as possible. He desires to "see it out to the last," to quote his own words, and to this end will make an effort to day in company with J. F. McCarthy, the secretary of the League, and some other of his co-laborers to visit as many of the polling places as possible and see that the men who are assigned to do the work are doing their duty. For twelve weeks Captain McNamara has now labored to help along the triumph of the protective principle; he paid no attention to his own business during that time, and went so far as to refuse to touch even one cent of the money placed in his hands for the expenses in connection with the organization. Besides this he has a set of books, and with J. F. McCarthy, a competent accountant, has kept a record of all monetary transactions, which he will submit to the County Committee when the election is over. "It will all soon be finished," he said last evening, "and finished with a victory for Harrison."

With all the enthusiasm of a volunteer, did not go to bed at all last night. He was at the headquarters of his organization, No. 141 Eighth-st., until 1 o'clock this morning, assigning men to the various election districts. He distributed badges, too. These will show the Irish workers as distinguished from the members of the regular Republican organizations at the different polling places. —Harrison-Morton—1888—Irish-American Anti-Free Trade League.

Is the inscription upon their badges.

Captain McNamara is determined that, as far as his organization is concerned, no stone will be left unturned to bring out as large a vote as possible. He desires to "see it out to the last," to quote his own words, and to this end will make an effort to day in company with J. F. McCarthy, the secretary of the League, and some other of his co-laborers to visit as many of the polling places as possible and see that the men who are assigned to do the work are doing their duty. For twelve weeks Captain McNamara has now labored to help along the triumph of the protective principle; he paid no attention to his own business during that time, and went so far as to refuse to touch even one cent of the money placed in his hands for the expenses in connection with the organization. Besides this he has a set of books, and with J. F. McCarthy, a competent accountant, has kept a record of all monetary transactions, which he will submit to the County Committee when the election is over. "It will all soon be finished," he said last evening, "and finished with a victory for Harrison."

With all the enthusiasm of a volunteer, did not go to bed at all last night. He was at the headquarters of his organization, No. 141 Eighth-st., until 1 o'clock this morning, assigning men to the various election districts. He distributed badges, too. These will show the Irish workers as distinguished from the members of the regular Republican organizations at the different polling places. —Harrison-Morton—1888—Irish-American Anti-Free Trade League.

Is the inscription upon their badges.

Captain McNamara is determined that, as far as his organization is concerned, no stone will be left unturned to bring out as large a vote as possible. He desires to "see it out to the last," to quote his own words, and to this end will make an effort to day in company with J. F. McCarthy, the secretary of the League, and some other of his co-laborers to visit as many of the polling places as possible and see that the men who are assigned to do the work are doing their duty. For twelve weeks Captain McNamara has now labored to help along the triumph of the protective principle; he paid no attention to his own business during that time, and went so far as to refuse to touch even one cent of the money placed in his hands for the expenses in connection with the organization. Besides this he has a set of books, and with J. F. McCarthy, a competent accountant, has kept a record of all monetary transactions, which he will submit to the County Committee when the election is over. "It will all soon be finished," he said last evening, "and finished with a victory for Harrison."

With all the enthusiasm of a volunteer, did not go to bed at all last night. He was at the headquarters of his organization, No. 141 Eighth-st., until 1 o'clock this morning, assigning men to the various election districts. He distributed badges, too. These will show the Irish workers as distinguished from the members of the regular Republican organizations at the different polling places. —Harrison-Morton—1888—Irish-American Anti-Free Trade League.

Is the inscription upon their badges.

Captain McNamara is determined that, as far as his organization is concerned, no stone will be left unturned to bring out as large a vote as possible. He desires to "see it out to the last," to quote his own words, and to this end will make an effort to day in company with J. F. McCarthy, the secretary of the League, and some other of his co-laborers to visit as many of the polling places as possible and see that the men who are assigned to do the work are doing their duty. For twelve weeks Captain McNamara has now labored to help along the triumph of the protective principle; he paid no attention to his own business during that time, and went so far as to refuse to touch even one cent of the money placed in his hands for the expenses in connection with the organization. Besides this he has a set of books, and with J. F. McCarthy, a competent accountant, has kept a record of all monetary transactions, which he will submit to the County Committee when the election is over. "It will all soon be finished," he said last evening, "and finished with a victory for Harrison."

With all the enthusiasm of a volunteer, did not go to bed at all last night. He was at the headquarters of his organization, No. 141 Eighth-st., until 1 o'clock this morning, assigning men to the various election districts. He distributed badges, too. These will show the Irish workers as distinguished from the members of the regular Republican organizations at the different polling places. —Harrison-Morton—1888—Irish-American Anti-Free Trade League.